Project List

- Active Movement Strategy Projects - Through the NSW Government Resources for Regions and NSW Stronger Country Communities funding, shared pathways in Lyndhurst, Newbridge, Millthorpe, Carcoar and Blayney have been brought forward. Some projects have been completed with others planned for the 2023/24 financial year.
- Barry Road - Barry Road is one of the Blayney Shire Local Road Improvements funded under the NSW Government Resources for Regions Round 9. The project is for the upgrade of the road to improve safety, drainage, and the resilience of the road network. This project is aiming for completion by November 2023
- Belubula River Walk - The Belubula River Walk will provide shared access from Martin Street to Heritage Park, including pedestrian access via a new footbridge to an island which sits alongside the Belubula River, and with viewing platform decks for fishing and bird watching; and installation of a boardwalk along a closed road reserve part of the route. This project has four stages and has received funding from multiple sources and is now complete.
- Browns Creek Road - Browns Creek Road is one of the Blayney Shire Local Road Improvements funded under the NSW Government Resources for Regions Round 9. The project includes safety upgrade to a section of road with a poor crash history, by the installation of a crash barrier and the widening of some shoulder areas to create a more forgiving road environment. This project is scheduled for 2024/25 Financial Year
- Carrington Park Amenities Refurbishment - Funded by NSW Government Resources for Regions, this project includes the refurbishment of the public amenities at Carrington Park and construction of a disabled car park on Osman Street and installation of a smart hub system to enable monitoring, automatic opening and closing of the public facilities at both locations.
- Forest Reefs and Tallwood Roads Intersection - Funded by NSW Government Resources for Regions, this project includes the re-design and reconstruction of the Forest Reefs and Tallwood Road intersection
