Community Centre and Village Halls

Blayney Shire has 14 multipurpose community halls and centres, varying from historical weatherboard community halls established many years ago, to the larger Blayney Shire Community Centre.

Each facility varies in the size and amenities and many are available for hire, having access to tables, chairs and kitchen facilities and are able to cater for a diverse range of both community and private functions. These centres provide community members with an opportunity and place to create, celebrate, learn new skills, access information and most importantly, meet and socialise, in their own local community.

Community Halls and Centres owned by Council are available for hire on a casual or regular basis at very affordable rates. Community Halls are bookable via the relevant community member (details below) and the Community Centre is bookable via Council (details below).

All activities using Council facilities, including Community Halls, are required to be covered by Public Liability Insurance to a value of not less than $10 million. Council can assist with the provision of “Casual Hirers” public liability insurance for non-incorporated groups and individuals to protect against public liability claims.
