

Carcoar School of Arts Hall

Carcoar School of Arts Hall is a superb two storey building that is more than capable of holding community functions, including weddings. Located on Icely Street, Carcoar, it has a fully functional kitchen complete with crockery, cutlery and cooking equipment. The hall has a large stage area and easily seats up to 180 people, with an ample supply of tables and chairs to cater for such numbers. The hall comes equipped with overhead fans and gas heating for comfort and is fitted out with a data projector and retractable screen for seminars and presentations. Other features include the large outdoor park area with tables, chairs and a BBQ by the river, and there is the added attraction of the Carmenhurst Military Museum upstairs.
