For the purpose of this policy, it is not considered appropriate to set either a dollar value or a percentage value to determine materiality.

Ordinary Citizen Transaction - means a transaction that an ordinary citizen of the community would undertake in the ordinary course of business with Council.

Related Party Transaction - is a transfer of resources, services or obligations between a Council and a related party, regardless of whether a price is charged.

Regulation - means the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005.

Remuneration means remuneration package and includes any money, consideration, benefit received or receivable by the person but excludes reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses, including any amount received or receivable from a related party transaction.

3. Background

The Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) determined in AASB 124 that from 1 July 2016 related party disclosures will apply to government entities, including local governments (Councils).

AASB 124 provides that Council must disclose the following financial information in its financial statements for each financial year period:

- disclosure of any related party relationship;
 - must disclose in its Annual Financial Statements its relationship with any related parties or subsidiaries (where applicable), whether or not there have been transactions within the relevant reporting period;
- Key Management Personnel (KMP) Compensation Disclosures;
 - must disclose in its Annual Financial Statements details for each of the categories of KMP compensation, as stated in the definitions of this Policy, in total.

4. Policy Statement

Council is committed to responsible corporate governance, including compliance with laws and regulations governing related party transactions.

Related Party relationships are a normal feature of commerce and business. For example, entities frequently carry on parts of their activities through subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates. In those circumstances, there is the possibility of the entity having the ability to affect the financial and operating policies of Council through the presence of control, joint control or significant influence.

A Related Party relationship could influence the normal business operations of Council even if Related Party Transactions do not occur. The mere existence of the relationship may be sufficient to affect the transactions of the Council with other parties. Alternatively, one party may refrain from trading with Council because of the significant influence of another—for example, a local supplier may be instructed by its parent not to engage in supplying goods to Council.

For these reasons, knowledge of Council's transactions and outstanding balances (including commitments and relationships with Related Parties) may affect assessments of Council's operations.

AASB 124 provides that Council must disclose all material and significant Related Party Transactions and outstanding balances; including commitments, in its Annual Financial Statements. Generally, disclosure shall only be made where a transaction has occurred between council and a related party of council. In addition, the transaction must be material in nature or size, when considered individually or collectively.

When assessing whether such transactions are significant the following factors shall be taken into consideration:

- significance in terms of size;
- was it carried out on non-market terms;
- is it outside normal day-to-day council operations;
- was it subject to council approval;
- did it provide a financial benefit not available to the general public;
- was the transaction likely to influence decisions of users of the Annual Financial Statements.

Regard must also be given for transactions that are collectively, but not individually significant.

To enable Council to comply with AASB 124 Council's KMP, as defined within this Policy, are required to declare full details of any Related Parties and Related Party Transactions. Such information shall be retained and reported, where necessary, in Council's Annual Financial Statements.

5. Key Management Personnel

AASB 124 defines KMP's as "those persons having authority and responsibility, either directly or indirectly, for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the entity."

For Council purposes KMP include:

- the Mayor,
- Councillors,

- the General Manager, and
- Directors.

6. Related Parties

- they and Council are joint ventures of the same third party;

- they are part of a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either Council or an entity related to Council;

- they are controlled or jointly controlled by close members of the family of a person;
- they are identified as a close or possibly close member of the family of a person with significant influence over Council or a close or possibly close member of the family of a person who is a KMP of Council; or

8. Disclosure

AASB 124 provides that Council must disclose all material and significant Related Party Transactions in its Annual financial statements by aggregate or general description and include the following detail:

- relevant information about the transactions including:
 - the amount of the transaction;
 - the amount of outstanding balances, including commitments, and

 - details of any guarantee given or received;
 - provision for doubtful debts related to the amount of outstanding balances; and
 - the expense recognised during the period in respect of bad or doubtful debts due from related parties.

All transactions involving Related Parties shall be captured and reviewed to determine materiality or otherwise of such transactions, if the transactions are Ordinary Citizen Transactions, and to determine the significance of each of the transactions.

Generally, transactions with amounts receivable from and payable to KMP or their related parties that occur within normal employee, customer or supplier relationships and at arm's length that are immaterial or insignificant shall be excluded from detailed disclosures. Such activity shall be disclosed in the financial statements by general description.

Disclosures that Related Party Transactions were made on terms equivalent to an arm's length transaction can only be made if such terms can be substantiated.

AASB requirements in this regard are available at Attachment A

9. Procedures

The method for identifying the close family members and associated entities of KMP shall be by KMP self-assessment. KMP have an ongoing responsibility to advise Council immediately of any Related Party Transactions.
