

Tourism Development Program

The Tourism Development Program provides support to both not-for-profit entities and local businesses to host events, execute marketing projects or develop tourism products aimed to promote to grow the visitor economy in the Blayney Shire.

The fund is open to all local businesses (individuals, partnerships and sole traders) and Incorporated Associations who are residents or who conduct their activities in the Blayney Shire Local Government Area.

Funding applications are now open, and allocated progressively until all funds are spent at the end of the financial year.
