Additional Info      Mandurama Country Music Muster is a celebration of all things country. As well as showcasing Australia's country musicians & artists including well-known Catherine Britt, there will be a range of different activities every weekend during the whole month of November at the Mando Pub.

Scoot your boots in and learn to line dance or gather around the campfire and enjoy the taste of local produce and wines. Get ready with your friends to sing like no one is listening on the karaoke nights or bring your kids for an evening filled with family fun and watch the talent quest.
