

Mandurama

Mandurama began in the mid 1800's as a private settlement for the nearby Large Ickley family property with workers on the property establishing their homes.

It is fitting, therefore, that the town has become a service centre for a rich agricultural area, which boasts some of the finest properties in the Central West

